Jared Koch is an Associate in the Entertainment Group.

Jared advises emerging and established actors, writers, producers, directors, musicians, social media influencers, financiers, and distribution and production companies on a variety of matters related to content development, production, and distribution.

Before transitioning to entertainment law, Jared's practice focused on public and private corporate matters, with a particular focus on mergers and acquisitions, and the negotiation of credit facilities in connection with those transactions. His foundation in corporate transactions allows him to approach entertainment deals with a strong understanding of business strategy, financing, and risk management.

Prior to joining Greenberg Glusker, Jared was an Associate at a top Am Law firm and a federal judicial law clerk. While attending University of Pennsylvania Law School, Jared served as a legal extern for the United States Attorney's Office of the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, and as a judicial intern to the Honorable Timothy J.
