Trent Douglas is an Associate in the firm's Bankruptcy, Reorganization & Capital Recovery Group. He works on matters involving financially distressed businesses, from reorganizations and liquidations to the protection and recovery of assets.

Trent's practice focuses on business restructuring and insolvency matters, including Chapter 7 and Chapter 11 proceedings, creditor and debtor rights, and bankruptcy-related litigation. He brings experience from inside the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the Central District of California, where he served as a term law clerk and, earlier, as a judicial extern.

Before joining Greenberg Glusker, Trent clerked for the Honorable Magdalena Reyes Bordeaux. While at Loyola Law School, Trent was a member of the Thurgood Marshall Moot Court and participated in the Consumer Bankruptcy Clinic, where he assisted individuals with Chapter 7 bankruptcy filings.
